FRUMOASA (1) looked a smart prospect when going clear for a 1.5L success on debut at Southwell. Yards runners generally need a start so big progression can be expected particularly over this longer distance. Drawn well receiving a handy apprentice weight allowance and could prove difficult to beat. BEARLY BLUE (2) runs first up for yard going particularly well with its juveniles. Expect a bold showing. LADY BRANKSOME (3) races under champion jockey for debut. Could be fit and likely to go close. MAGNESIUM (6) showed ability when beaten 6L racing first up at Ascot. This looks easier and now rates as a potential threat to all.

SPIRIT OF SAXONY (5) drops back to a novice race having shaped extremely well at Ascot attempting a good handicap last time. Beaten 6L that day but travelled into the race powerfully and this drop in trip could suit perfectly. Leading contender. NO NAY DATA (1) shaped well placing here on debut and built on that to shed the maiden tag at Southwell last time. May continue improving and there could be more to come yet. Keep safe. DEPORTED (2) was beaten 2.25L at Southwell in latest. That was a creditable performance but can do better again here. Shortlist. DRYMEE (7) showed ability on debut last September at Leicester. Absent since and switching yards remains a nice prospect. Each way player.

HOUSE OF MEDICI (2) is a nicely bred colt by Bated Breath. Yard is having good spell and they certainly know how to ready a debutant. Champion jockey booked and is the one to beat. HOZAM (3) is the sibling to multiple winners with the best of those actually scoring at G1 level. Clearly bred to be smart and receives a handy apprentice weight allowance first up. Keep safe. THE GOLDEN SNITCH (5) shaped with promised when a 2.25L fourth on debut. Backwards step second up but held excuses and might bounce back here. Threat to all on debut form. HAMDA'S JOY (6) placed all three outings so far. Not quite progressed as hoped but remains with each way claims amongst this field.

QUICK TURN (12) went clear for a 2L win at Wolverhampton. That was a big career best and seems to now be improving. Up in the weights however could prove hard to beat. DENBY'S DREAM (13) was beaten a neck at Bath last time. Close to a win on that form and switching to all-weather is no concern. Big chance of now shedding the maiden tag. KARAKULA DANCER (2) is both talented and consistent. Has won three times and placed in four starts for this jockey while also won tackling track and trip before. Wide stall not ideal however holds ability to overcome that. SUGGY (11) has been absent for six months. Denied by just a head at the track providing final start last campaign. Threat to all on that effort.

I'M WORKIN ON IT (1) made it three wins past five starts when a 0.5L winner at this track. All four career victories have come at this circuit and there could be plenty more to come yet. Leading contender. CHALK MOUNTAIN (7) has been off the track for eight months. Good record when running fresh so no fitness concerns while enjoys racing at this course. Fairly weighted and set to go close. ROCK IGUANA (6) resumed with 1.5L second at Southwell. That was a likeable performance and may strip fitter to go better now. Key player. SEA SUITE (13) could benefit for the application of first time visor and looks a threat to all if improving for that.

IWANTMYTIMEWITHYOU (4) can gain compensation following a narrow defeat eleven days ago. The Ed Dunlop runner was beaten a short-head at Leicester over 2400m and looks progressive. Given another good chance here and the step up in trip could suit while Billy Loughnane takes over which is eye-catching. BETELGEUSE (3) may build on back-to-back seconds. His latest 1.25L defeat over 3200m is promising and a return to this distance will suit. GOLDEN GARDEN (2) rates next best. He won over 2800m in September and latest Goodwood performance was an improvement on recent form. SARATOGA GOLD (5) is a contender. His 2.75L Doncaster third gives him a chance.

KAMAWAY (1) is fancied to repeat a course and distance win seven days ago. Her 3L triumph was a career best and she may continue progressing. That was her first time on the turf too and racing for Eve Johnson Houghton holds leading claims. Recent winner TIMELY AFFAIR (2) is next best. Will have something to prove away from the all-weather. His latest 1.75L Southwell win over 1600m is encouraging. Cheekpieces were added twenty one days ago and are equipped again. TILANI (4) also arrives in form. This gelding landed a 1600m Newbury handicap by 1.5L just five days ago. HAVANA TOBOUGGALOO (6) was only beaten a neck making stable debut for Zoe Hawkins. Deserves a market check.

ZIGGY'S CONDOR (2) is the one who makes most appeal on debut for Adam Kirby. There were promising signs in his latest 2.25L fourth at Newcastle and best form has been achieved tackling this 1400m trip. A switch back to turf could help. ROGUE ALLEGIANCE (4) is in good form after a 1L third over course and distance last time. May play a leading role once again. GIORGIO M (6) produced two good performances here and warrants respect though more is needed on recent form. Receives a nice handicap. BERRY CLEVER (8) is also a likely player.
