KAMILLE AU KANADA (2) takes narrow preference in this small field. Point winner last November and clearly held in high regard by connections having made rules debut among Listed company (finished fourth). Second of four in a jumpers flat race here last month (3600m). Can make a successful start over hurdles. NELSON GATE (3) struggled to really step forward as hoped in handicaps across two starts this spring. Maintains experience edge in this sphere though which will benefit. Ought to make a challenge. ARFURSGAL (1) has not been seen since last May. Displayed ability in three attempts on the level. Victory wouldn't be a surprise.

GOODWIN (1) comfortably claimed a second course and distance victory last time out by 2.75L. Only just qualifies for this grade nowadays and very much looks the one to beat in this line-up. DIPLOMATIC ASH (3) returns to hurdling for the first time in two years. Fair efforts when chasing this spring without getting too close to the win on either occasion. Looks the biggest threat. MOTAZZEN (4) scored by 10L on penultimate start at Fontwell (4300m) under this rider but came home well beaten at that same track twelve days ago. Chance if putting best foot forward. SEEUQUINMYDREAMS (1) joins the Tom Ellis yard after sauntering to victory in a Hexham selling hurdle last time. Usually runs a solid race though was underwhelming on sole chase outing last year. Leading claims. CAPTAIN COOL (2) battled well to land the win on chasing debut at Stratford last week attempting this journey. Penalised here however he is tough and will take some stopping. LAKEFIELD FLYER (3) might not have the best strike rate. Does bring plenty of chasing experience and after reappearing running fifth a fortnight ago will strip fitter now. Not much between all four runners. CHER MONSIEUR (3) brings the best form with the Neil Mulholland runner already making a promising start to the season running 1.5L second at Uttoxeter twenty-four days ago. Though with only one win from ten attempts holds solid form on this ground and would have a major chance if building on that effort. BEGIN THE LUCK (1) is a previous course and distance winner. Excellent recent performance when a 0.5L second at Fontwell tackling 3900m twenty days ago. Leading claims once again. I SHUT THAT D'OR (2) also boasts winning course form. Finished behind the just-mentioned last time and may reverse the outcome. Preferred over BAHTIYAR (4).

EARTH KING (1) can follow up a recent triumph with his 1.5L Hereford victory strong form in this context. Though maintaining a patchy profile that success was encouraging.
