Hurdle TURF GOOD Participants #7

FLYING ACE (2) ended up being well held at Downpatrick in fourth place earlier during the month. Will need a step forward to win here but could be capable of doing so. MILITARY CROSS (6) wasn't disgraced on turf making the frame in seven of his eight starts. Produced a quiet debut for this stable two weeks ago however retains potential now going hurdling. COLINSKI (5) finished well adrift on debut at Hexham three weeks ago. Entitled to show improvement from that experience and is given another chance. BIG GYPSY KING (7) will find handicaps more realistic further down the line so best watched here.

Course form can often count for plenty around here and ZAMOND (3) has been keeping away from winter ground to have a successful summer campaign. Likely to give a bold show here despite the absence. JUSTLIKEFIRE (4) now wears a first time tongue strap after finishing well held at Hexham. Will need to take a big step forward. It is possible the application of a tongue tie could be to his advantage. FRANK STAMPER (6) disappointed at Stratford-upon-Avon recently. Likely finds this more realistic. CHARACTER TESTING (7) will be fresh after a return to hurdling last time out and might give a bold sight.

BENY NAHAR ROAD (9) proved inconsistent racing for this stable last summer. Signed off with a fall at Uttoxeter in September and given time throughout winter to strengthen so may give a bold showing. LOWLANDS (7) got off the mark attempting a maiden hurdle at Perth a fortnight ago. Capable of showing further improvement while stable had a winner recently. Not ruled out. MUSIQUE DE FEE (2) has performed okay last two outings at this track. Clearly enjoys the venue and brings place claims at best. EBSELYSEES (2) arrives bidding for a hat-trick after several wins at Perth over similar distances to this. The assessor continues to give her a chance and she rates a major player. WEE ALKI (1) did a good job dropping in trip marginally at Hexham earlier in the month. Set a tough task on this rating and against this field however cannot be faulted. I AM SPIDER MAN (5) finished runner up past two starts. Latest effort at Hereford wasn't as impressive as Newton Abbot start of the month. One to note. VALENTINE BOY (6) can build on a recent win. He scored over course and distance by 1.25L just twenty three days ago. Trained by Luke Dace and likely has much more to offer. Adopts a hood for the first time and this two-time Kempton winner is sure to give a bold bid. JOSEPH (2) also arrives in good condition. Won by a neck trying 2000m at Lingfield during April. Drops in trip but has run well at Kempton before. Definite contender racing for John Butler. KIT GABRIEL (4) looks set to continue a good spell. The seven-year-old was only beaten 0.5L tackling 1400m at this track twenty one days ago. TEX (7) is consistent and rates among the main contenders.

Little form to judge these two-year-olds on. PHALANX NATION (5) has the advantage of a promising third over 1200m at Nottingham last month. Archie Watson is great with juveniles and she was well fancied first time out. Improvement expected from this Sioux Nation filly. One of the major players here. MOONRISE (4) is an interesting ride for Oisin Murphy. The debutant is by Churchill and out of a winning sprinter. ESHA'A (2) is one to watch for Shadwell. FOX AVATAR (12) could pick up where he left off last season. Roger Varian trains this five-year-old who was a 0.75L winner at Lingfield over 2400m when last seen in August. That is strong form in the context of this race and rates a likely player despite a 279-day break. BULLETIN (8) has been in great form this campaign. His 2L Ascot second over 2400m gives him leading claims. Brings two wins on the all-weather and capable of another. AQWAAM (1) might be one to watch off a 592-day break. The eight-year-old was third in the 2024 Cesarewitch on his last start. Respect. TIME LOOP (11) was fourth last time and is another contender.

GOOLOOGONG (8) was a course and distance winner last time and can score again. Impressed gaining that 2.75L victory twenty three days ago and there could be more to come. Maintaining an excellent record here this six-year-old looks the one to beat. FILIBUSTERING (7) must be a contender on jumping form. Trained by Harry Derham and enjoyed back-to-back hurdle victories. ROBUSTO (3) is another with winning form at Kempton. He comes after a 2800m Wolverhampton success last month. NOW THE EAGLE (11) posted top two finishes in his past two outings. May continue the excellent spell. MOON CHIME (10) is another to consider.
