AIMERIC (1) was very smart on the flat. Made a quiet debut over hurdles finishing fourth at Chepstow last month. Could have learned plenty from that experience and will be able to take care of this field. JESSIE JUMP JET (7) remains well exposed hurdling however does bring a fair level of handicap form having finished runner up at Warwick three weeks ago. Strong claims. FRISKY WHISKEY (6) made a quiet start in a jumpers flat event a fortnight ago and now goes hurdling for the first time. Interesting contender. POPALOT (2) will need to improve from a disappointing performance here last time out.

EL MUCHACHO (2) will only have a small field to contend with here and maintaining fair form at this level for a sustained period can return to winning ways. LIVANO BELLO (1) pulled up at Perth two weeks ago and remains a maiden. Placed on seven of his thirteen attempts under rules and may give a bold sight. PLAY BY THE RULES (4) was brought down at Hexham earlier in the month. Brings a patchy record and was declared a non-runner at the weekend. More is needed. PARISH STAR (5) continues to hold form nicely having finished third eight weeks ago at Kelso. That was a good performance adopting the first time hood and tongue strap combination. Looks the one to beat. TIME WAS (6) disappointed supporters at Catterick in February. Freshened since that outing and market confidence would be important though is still without a win under rules. MISTRAL BLUE (1) should come on for the run having finished well held at Warwick earlier this month after a five month absence. Respect.
