MOONLIT POTTER (3) could have just enough to take this small field contest. Second of four when last seen twelve days ago at Huntingdon and subsequently received a small drop in the ratings. Well capable of mixing it from this mark in newly enlisted blinkers. MAXIMUM OFFERS (1) produced a quiet season so far. Arrives fresh from a three-month absence and needs to brush up the jumping a little based on first two efforts. Rates a leading contender against this line-up. JULLOU DE GRISSAY (2) tackles larger obstacles for the first time. Weakened out of contention providing first effort for this yard last month. May strip fitter.

MAESTRO DU MESNIL (5) was well supported for his handicap debut in latest and still managed to provide a good showing running 6.5L second despite not jumping fluently. Receives faster going and a step up in distance so is very much worth giving another chance. CHURCHMAN (6) is getting closer filling runner-up spots last two starts including one over course and distance. Can find a race of this nature. BRAVE MOVE (4) indicated ability finishing third of sixteen runners when last seen in December at Taunton (4800m). Arrives after a break and rates a danger if ready to go. IAMYOUARE (3) could have more to offer after just two attempts for this yard. Consider.

Gaelic Saint (9) contested decent handicaps past two outings. Drop back to the 3200m distance could be in favour revisiting a venue she ran well at in a flat race. Top selection. Crystal Days (8) likewise can be forgiven her latest effort in a good handicap at Kelso. Might find things simpler back among maiden company. Worthy of respect. Fidendum (3) has not been sighted for more than a year. Undone by keenness so far when hurdling yet still only 2.75L from a useful winner in latest irrespective. Enters the frame. COURT IN A STORM (2) scored a maiden hurdle at this venue last spring. Finished a fair fourth on seasonal debut at Exeter last month. Entitled to do much better with that run behind. The one to beat. MY MATE AJ (5) went off at short odds both starts earlier in the winter. Showed ability despite some waywardness beaten 2.25L at Lingfield (AW) on the latter occasion. Expect he may have come on well in the meantime. OYKEL BRIDGE (6) also brings the benefit of a couple of runs. Third on both attempts last time beaten 8L at Haydock. Might go closer. BOUND FOR GLORY (11) finished a fair fourth on racecourse debut at Catterick in January. Stable can deliver jumpers flat winners. Shortlist. HASSALEH (3) shaped with promise when third over 1200m at Windsor on debut and has evidently been given time to progress since. That experience could prove decisive and she could take plenty of beating. POINTE BLEU (5) is a Blue Point filly out of Listed winner Troam. Pedigree suggests she can make an immediate impact. BAAANDEE (1) returned with a solid Chelmsford second tackling 1400m after travelling strongly and although this is tougher she remains firmly in the mix. THURSDAY GIRL (6) showed ability when fifth at Salisbury on sole appearance. Natural progress is expected and she might feature.

MAHO BAY (4) created a favourable impression making a winning debut at Kempton over 2220m and the son of Dubawi looks capable of following up after a break. Rates a leading contender. AMADEUS MOZART (1) also scored first time out when successful at the Curragh last spring. With natural progress commands major respect. GUILDMASTER (3) landed a success as a newcomer at Lingfield contesting 1600m four months ago and remains open to plenty of improvement. GALIYAN (5) is an interesting newcomer by Galiway out of Via Manzoni whose pedigree offers encouragement. Worth paying close attention in the market.

ROYAL VELVET (6) returns after six and a half months. Remains a horse of interest on previous figures now advancing in distance. Appeals as a major player with William Buick engaged. GANGSTA MAN (13) nearly made a winning comeback when touched off by a nose over 1000m at Musselburgh. Another bold showing looks likely. GOLDMOYNE (11) followed a recent victory with a close third at Musselburgh tackling 1400m. With Cieren Fallon back on board he merits serious respect. MORTE POINT (5) has not been seen since scoring at Southwell in October yet that success reads well and he holds definite top three claims.
