RACEWAY (2) should have finished closer to the winner last time as she hung between the 600m mark and 200m mark. It must be noted that the horse that finished fourth that day has come out and won since. She is having her peak run and in this field she can shed her maiden tag. CODEWORD (1) has shown good improvement in her last two starts under 4kgs claiming apprentice Girish Samo-Burthia. She should be one of the leading contenders in this line-up. PHUTHI (3) is better than her last start run would suggest as she was reported to be not striding out. Worth another chance. DELAWARE RIVER (5) returns from a 10-week spell which may have done her the world of good. If finding the form of her penultimate outing she should be figuring in the finish.

SWORD OF LIGHT (11) produced a promising debut effort over 1450m on the Classic course. She lost a length leaving the start but stayed on well at the finish. She would have gained from the experience and should love the extra distance on offer. With the natural improvement that is expected, she may be the one to beat. UNIVERSAL GIRL (4) was in need of her debut effort over 1200m. She would have come on from the outing and should improve over this distance. MADAME POMPADOUR(2) is better than her last start run over 1800m would suggest. She finished second in her penultimate outing over this course and distance. Has each-way claims. AMAZE ME (5) is yet to break through after seven career starts but placed third of eight at Turffontein Inside two back before finishing fourth at this track last time. Can finish in the top-three.

ROSY LEMON (3) is better than her last start run over 2400m as she was reported to have choked up. She has won over this distance previously. She runs well for Jockey Serino Moodley and can notch up her sixth-career victory. LAVA LAMP (1) followed up her maiden win with an equally impressive victory over 2400m on the Classic course. She gets the services of 4kgs claiming apprentice Savanna Valjalo which will assist her cause. She is in a good space and can bring up the hat-trick. VOLTE FACE (4) stayed on well when second of 10 at long odds over this course and distance last time. He is likely to be settled near the rear of the field from the widest draw and will be storming home late. KISS OF FIRE (7) produced a strong finish to win her last start over 1800m on this course. Two of her three career victories have come over this distance. She has to be respected.

BETWAY SUMMER CUP 29 NOVEMBER MR 76...

FLAT TURF Participants #10

PALACE PRINCE (2) was an impressive winner of his last start over this course and distance. He quickened up well at the 150m mark that day and won easier than the official margin would suggest. He has class about him and can follow up with another victory. XENOPHON (6) was an easy winner of his last start over this distance on the Classic course. It must be noted that the horse that finished third that day has come out and won since. He takes on stronger rivals but has scope and should be well up to the task at hand. FALCON STRIKE (10) should have won his last start as he had no luck over the closing stages. He will strip much fitter and would not be a shock winner. HONG KONG (1) has been in the market at her last couple of runs but failed to fire, the latest effort a modest fifth at this track over 1200m. Has solid each-way claims.

TIME FOR CHARITY (5) has good consistent form lines to her name. She took the lead at the 250m mark last time before getting outrun late. Serino Moodley retains the ride, and she should be involved in the finish. IN THE ETHER (1) rallied late when winning her last start over 1000m on this course. 4kgs claiming apprentice Girish Samo-Burthia retains the ride, and the pair merit healthy respect. CAPTAIN EFFICIENT (3) is better than his last start run would suggest as he was reported to be not striding out. On previous form, he should be finishing in the top-three. PRINCESS LOLA (4) finished fourth last time out over 1200m at Turffontein Inside. Include in combinations.
